

Hi everyone!

We're excited to share that this month Cyber-Seniors was featured in the 17th issue of the NTEN: Change journal which focuses on "Digital Inclusion and Technical Divides." This issue covers a range of perspectives from those at the forefront of bridging the digital divide: schools, libraries, city governments, and nonprofit organizations. Subscribe & download the March 2015 issue: www.nten.org/ntenchange.

See below for the interview NTEN conducted with director and producer of the film - Saffron Cassaday and Brenda Rusnak

Cyber-Seniors: Capturing the Real Senior Moment

Interview with Saffron Cassaday and Brenda Rusnak, Cyber-Seniors Documentary

"Cyber-Seniors" is a humorous and heartwarming feature documentary that adds to the important international conversation about the growing generation gap. In this interview with its filmmakers, Saffron Cassaday and Brenda Rusnak, we learn how the film breaks down stereotypes about seniors, and narrates the connections between generations. Focusing on a group of senior citizens who take their first steps into cyber-space under the tutelage of teenage mentors, the film expertly renders a thought-provoking look at a spirited group of men and women who are enriched by digitally re-connecting with their families and each other.

Read the full article.

The Cyber-Seniors Team

P.S. Here is some exciting news from the past week!

Technology helps seniors take control of their health

According to Statistics Canada, an estimated five million Canadians were 65 or older in 2011, a number that is expected to double in the next 25 years.

Senior Citizens Dig YouTube and Teenagers

REUNIONCare

Building trusted care teams with 24/7 connections for busy family and friends

Digital and Partisan Divides with Cyber Seniors

Cyber Seniors Documentary | |
info@cyber-seniors.ca |
1920 Yonge Street
Toronto, M4S 3E2

Join My Mailing List

Forward to a Friend

